

The split is a cut on b^* , not on lightness

• assigned light • medium • dark

99.9% of images lie above $L^* = 50$, so the sign of ITA is set by the sign of b^* alone, not by lightness.

Both groups are equally light difference in mean $L^* = -1.2$

Cohen's $d = -0.18$